Jones--Ragland.

A marriage of much interest to friends here and in Macon county, was that of Prof. John Jones and Miss Mollie Ragland, which occurred Sunday at the home of bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ragland on Gainesboro R-3. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. K. A. Early in the presence a few invited guests.

The bride was attractively gowned in a costume of blue Crepe de Chine. She is very popular with her circle of friends and has been a successful teacher in the public schools of the county.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Jones of near Westmoreland, Macon county (formerly of Flynn's Lick) and is a young man of sterling character. He obtained his education in Berea College, Ky., and the T. P. I., Cookeville. He was successful as a teacher.

Immediately after the ceremony the popular young couple left for the groom's home in Macon county, where they will reside.

Boy Seriously Hurt By a Dynamite Cap.

Clifford, the 8-year old son of M. H. Gentry and wife, who live on Morrison's Creek, happened with a very painful and serious accident Monday afternoon, when he exploded a dynamite cap and a piece of the cap struck him in the right eye and entering the eyeball.

He was brought to Gainesboro Tuesday morning, and after an examination by Dr. Gaw was taken on to Nashville accompanied by his parents and the doctor.

Wednesday he was taken to Dr. Woods, eye specialists, who tried his skill in extracting the piece of cap from the eyeball, but without avail. The examination showed a piece of the cap about a half inch long in the back of the eyeball. Unless this can be removed the eyeball will have to be taken out to save the other eye. It will be several days before the final results came be determined.

The family have the sympathy of a host of friends in this sad experience.

This ghost was a 1921 model

LAST MONTH, on a bet,
WITH THE boys up home,
I SPENT a night,
ALONE IN the old,
HAUNTED HOUSE,
AND WHEN I heard,
MOANS AND groans,
I SAID "The wind,"
AND TRIED to sleep,
I HEARD rattlings,
AND SAID "Rats,"
AND ROLLED over,
THEN I heard steps,
AND IN the light,
OF A dying moon,
A WHITE spook rose,
I WASN'T scared—much,
BUT DIDN'T feel like
STARTING ANYTHING,
BUT THEN I caught,
JUST A faint whiff,

OF A familiar,
AND DELICIOUS smell,
WHICH TIPPED me off,
SO I gave the ghost,
THE HORSE laugh,
AND SAID "Ed,
YOU FAT guy,
MAKE BUM ghosts,
BUT BEFORE you fade,
LEAVE WITH me one,
OF YOUR cigarettes,
THEY SATISFY."

THAT spicy, delicious aroma of fine tobaccos, both Turkish and Domestic, makes you almost hungry for the "satisfy-smoke."
And there isn't a ghost of a chance you'll ever find its equal anywhere—for the Chesterfield blend is an exclusive blend. It can't be copied.

Have you seen the new
AIR-TIGHT tins of 50?
